

NEWSLETTER <sup>N° 2</sup>

The training sessions have started

TRAINING SESSIONS ON GENDER-BASED DISCRIMINATION

In recent months, our teams have conducted training sessions specifically designed to help community leaders and youth mentors better understand the challenges related to disinformation – with a particular focus on gender – based fake news.

OUR YOUTUBE PAGE IS NOW LIVE

To hear testimonials from participants in our training sessions and discover the working methods of the partners involved in this project, click here:

In France, the association Fake Off organized an internal training session for its journalist-trainers on the topic of gender and fake news. The session was led by Marie Thuret, Gender Equality Advisor for the Ministry of National Education.

Our partners are developing innovative educational tools to make knowledge-sharing more accessible. Coming soon: The Gender Unicorn – a card game and a fun, simple way to learn essential gender-related vocabulary to better counter fake news.

Follow us to stay up to date on our fight against disinformation and our efforts to protect democracy!

Find out more

